

ONE BOOK ONE COMMUNITY

WINCHENDON'S TOWN-WIDE READ
NOVEMBER 2022 THROUGH APRIL 2023

BOOKS AROUND WINCHENDON!

The Beals Memorial Library has plenty of books available for checkout. Community copies will be placed at various locations throughout Winchendon waiting to be discovered. If you stumble upon a book, take it, read it, initial it, and return to the location for the next person to enjoy.

HOW DOES THIS WORK?

1. Go to a community location
2. Take a copy of "Hey Kiddo" by Jarrett J. Krosoczka
3. Read and Enjoy
4. Initial the front cover sticker, to be counted as a reader
5. Return to the location for the next person to enjoy.

USE YOUR LIBRARY CARD!

The library will have copies of the book and audiobook available for check out.

Want the book digitally? Use your library card and Libby to get E-books and E-audiobooks

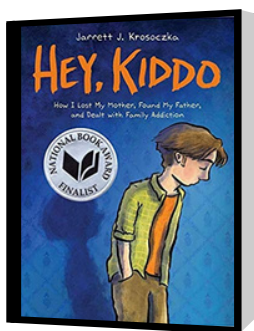

WHERE TO GET A BOOK?

- Beals Memorial Library
- Winchendon CAC
- Winchendon Senior Center
- Town of Winchendon Clerks Office
- Murdock Middle High School Library (students only)
- Clark Memorial YMCA
- Winchendon Police Station
- Cornerstone Church
- The Chapel Downtown

Additional places will be added.

Check our website for more information:

bealslibrary.org/townwideread

THIS YEAR'S ONE BOOK, ONE COMMUNITY READ:

"Hey, Kiddo" by Jarrett J. Krosoczka

About the Book: A powerful, unforgettable graphic memoir about growing up with a drug-addicted mother, a missing father, and two unforgettably opinionated grandparents.

Recommended Age: 11+ Book Topics: addiction, mental health, adult language and non-traditional family.

bealslibrary.org/townwideread

A collaborative program brought to you by: